Sep 14, 2020OEDIPUS THE KING: GREEK PLAY, 20TH CENTURY (AUCTION) Description There were 14 productions of Sophocles's OEdipus the King in 20th-century Europe, more than we'd expect for an ordinary play. Among them was a production by Johannes Frohberger at the Salzburg Festival in 1932, who made a series of radical cuts designed to streamline the play without cutting anything essential. This production still exists, and it's now up for auction at Bonhams in London in June. The back row of the cast is Oscar Lewenstein, who became a famous director after the Second World War, while the front row is Miroslaw Kowalski, one of the great Polish actors of the 20th century. The famous photograph from that production hangs above the desk.Introduction ===== 3da54e8ca3
