A new national poll conducted on behalf of Restore our Future shows Sen. Rand Paul (R-KY) in a statistical tie with Sen. Lindsey Graham (R-SC) for second place in the race for the Republican nomination. The respected Rasmussen Reports poll has Paul at 19 percent, with Graham following at 18 percent. Mitt Romney (R-MA) is in third place with 14 percent, while Newt Gingrich (R-GA) holds on to fourth place with 10 percent. Rick Santorum (R-PA) is in fifth place with 8 percent, and Ron Paul (R-TX) with 7 percent. The show is a showcase for everything that's happening on campus, with performances, student art, and exciting things for the whole family to enjoy. All four shows kick off with a spectacular evening performance. There's a fantastic line up of special guests and the award winning Comedy Derby team will be there, giving students a chance to win fantastic prizes. The week's events will include a day-long free festival, with exhibitors, food, family entertainment, a kids zone, and more. University term runs from February to May. The event is FREE for students and just £7 for everyone else. Book your tickets here. The project kicked off with the reopening of the University's Digbeth campus barbershop: Gers Barber Shop. The barbershop was one of the oldest bars in Birmingham, and named for Arthur Gers, the founder of Birmingham's own Gers, the famous family-run gin brand. The barbershop reopened this week, featuring new up-to-date equipment and fixtures. The barbershop is one of the first steps in the 'Uni Up' project. This week, Uni Up focused its attention on several campus community projects, including a barbershop reopening, gallery 'Portrait' exhibitions at Birmingham and Birmingham City Council Gallery of Modern Art, taking over the Civic Suite gallery, and a new painting exhibition featuring work by staff and students. Also, Uni Up kicked off some much needed garden refurbishment work in the area around the barbershop. They have secured £30, 3e33713323
